Owyhee County ranchers Bill Walsh, Dennis Stanford, Elias Jaca, Tony Richards, Ted Blackstock, Owyhee Cattlemen's Association President Kenny Bahem and Owyhee County Farm Bureau President John Richard met with the Board to discuss the economic impact of the proposed permit takings decisions, not only to the ranchers but as well as the county as a whole. They feel if area ranchers are forced to sell out because they cannot survive due to the impact of the grazing decisions, and the land is developed, that will put an added financial burden on the county to provide services to property owners, most of which would likely be weekenders who would purchase the rural properties where the current ranches now exist. The Board was asked to support the ranchers on the forefront to try and save Owyhee County from economic ruin. The ranchers asked that they be informed if their allotments, permits, etc. are discussed in coordination meetings that they be informed so they can be present. Agendas for future coordination meetings will be sent to the individuals and agencies that were present.
